

Sometimes

Siobhan Donaghy

You tell me you love me
Then you tell me you don't
You tell me little lies and I wish that you won't
Only sometimes, only sometimes You tell me you miss me
Then you tell me you don't
You promise to ring me, then you say you forgot
Only sometimes, only sometimes My friends all adore you
Say I'm losing the plot
How can I grumble when I've got what I've got?
Only sometimes, only sometimes I act like it's cool
That it's not going too fast
But deep down I'm shaking, really want this to last
Not just sometimes, not just sometimes You tell me you love me
Then you tell me you don't
You tell me little lies and I wish that you won't
Only sometimes, only sometimes You tell me you miss me
Then you tell me you don't
You promise to ring me, then you say you forgot
Only sometimes, only sometimes
