

Outside the Frame

Paul Brandt

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

The shadows move slowly, they climb up the walls
Till the light hits the metal and glass
It shines through the dust, revealing the love
In an old black and white photograph
That was before but it's not anymore 'Cause outside the frame you're getting on with your life
I wonder if I ever will
'Cause inside my heart I picture us frozen in time
Just you and I standing still
Now everything's changed outside the frame The look in your eyes, your hand in mine
And we're both holding on to a dream
I'm still trapped in that moment where the sun always shines
And I don't ever want to be free, no
I want to stay as the light fades away Outside the frame you are getting on with your life
And I know that I never will
'Cause inside my heart I picture us frozen in time
Just you and I standing still
Now everything's changed outside the frame I keep waiting for something to change
But the picture inside stays the same
And the fact of the matter remains
Outside the frame
