

Life In Technicolor

Coldplay

There's a wild wind blowing
Down the corner of my street
Everynight there the headlight glowing
There's a cold war coming
On the radio i heard
Baby it's a violent world

Oh love don't let me go
Wont you take me where the street lights glow
I could hear it coming
I could hear the sirens sound
Now my feet won't touch the ground

Time came a creepin'
Oh the time's a loaded gun
Every road is a ray of light
It goes o-o-o-o-on
Time can only lead you on
Still it's such a beautiful night

Oh love don't let me go
Won't you take me where the street lights glow
I could hear it coming
Like a serenade of sound
Now my feet wont touch the ground

Gravity release me
Don't ever hold me down
Now my feet won't touch the ground
