Shadowfeet

Brooke Fraser

Walking, stumbling on these shadow feet
Toward home, a land that I?ve never seen
I am changing, less and less asleep
Made of different stuff than when I began
And I have sensed it all along
Fast approaching is the day
When the world has fallen out from under me
I?ll be found in You, still standing
When the sky rolls up and mountains fall on their knees
When time and space are through, I?ll be found in You
There?s distraction buzzing in my head
Saying in the shadows it?s easier to stay
But I?ve heard rumors of true reality
Whispers of a well-lit way
When the world has fallen out from under me
I?ll be found in You, still standing
When the sky rolls up and mountains fall on their knees
When time and space are through, I?ll be found in You
You make all things new, you make all things new
You make all things new, you make all things
You make all things
When the world has fallen out from under me
I?ll be found in you, still standing
When the sky rolls up and mountains fall on their knees
When time and space are through, I?ll be found in You
When the world has fallen out from under me
I?ll be found in you, still standing
Every fear and accusation under my feet
When time and space are through, I?ll be found in You
When time and space are through, I?ll be found in You
When time and space are through, I?ll be found in You
