Astral Hymn

Solar Twins

I wanted to be near
I wanted you to hear
I wanted you to know
It all belongs to you

And everything I am
I give to you alone
I wanted you to know
It all belongs to you

I give it from my soul
I want you to be whole
I want you to believe
It all belongs to you

You've got a way to go
And as for you I know
It all belongs to you
It all belongs to you

A star that's dying
A god forgiving
A love worth fighting for

A race divided
A drug for healing
All belong to you

I wanted to be near
I wanted you to hear
I wanted you to know
It all belongs to you

And everything I am
I give to you alone
I wanted you to know
It all belongs to you

Bedtime stories
(It all belongs to you)

A dream of glory
(It all belongs to you)
Another dying breed
(It all belongs to you)

Oceans swelling
(It all belongs to you)
A new beginning
(It all belongs to you)
It all belongs to you
(It all belongs to you)
(It all belongs to you)

A day for dreaming
(It all belongs to you)
A light evolving
(It all belongs to you)
It all belongs to you
(It all belongs to you)

A logic forming
(It all belongs to you)
A sky that's tearing
(It all belongs to you)
It all belongs to you
It all belongs to you
