Break These Chains

Iva Davies
---
so tell me where are you now now you know the way it feels was always easy for you they never let you down before I saw you turning to go
I saw you walk away from me
I
I don't have to play your game I never did belong in here I don't hear you any more now you listen to me 'cause I'm standing on the outside watching it all come down on you I've got to break these chains no you never could hold me down
I've got to break these chains it doesn't matter to me now I can leave it all behind well it's the anger in me you put the anger in me and I remember a time you know it's not so long ago
was always on the other side and I knew there must be more hearing all your empty words your promises but now I'm standing on the outside
watching it all come down on you
I've got to break these chains
no you never could hold me down
I've got to break these chains
I've got to break these chains
so tell me where are you now

they never let you down before
I saw you turning to go
and I knew there must be more
hearing all your empty words
watching it all come down on you
no you never could hold me down
break these chains
no you never could hold me down
break these chains
I've got to break these chains
oh these chains
no you never could hold me down
no you never could hold me down
break these chains
I've got to break these chains
