Good Morning Misery

Eva Under Fire

Take me where I'm needed/ if there exists the time and place/ I know I'll be alright but/ all I want is you/ lead me through the doorway/ I'm the barfly on the wall/ hear their barking laughter/ but all I want is you

It's three AM on this rooftop/ I'm way up here and it won't stop/ high above these city streets/ where only I believe/ I am someone I am someone I know I can feel it now/ oh if you knew you'd be proud/ if you saw me now

I'm hanging where the walls meet/ in the corner by the hall/ no one sees me smiling and all I want is you/ id probably feel more at home/ join in on their parade/ but I've seen better days and all I want is you

It's three AM on this rooftop/ I'm way up here and it won't stop/ high above these city streets/ where only I believe/ I am someone I am someone I know I can feel it now/ oh if you knew you'd be proud/ if you saw me now

I'm hanging where the walls meet in the corner by the hall no one sees me smile I know it's always been you
