

Scream Your Heart Out

Angra

Shaken out of liquid dreams you're under
The hellfire-red, insane nightmares
Is coming back inside
Patiently you walk again
Through the lane of a sadman's pain
Inner urge, tough beliefs
Is the way to a land of freeHowling strong
Shouting loud
The fear should be cast out now!
Awoken from a eternal sleep
You're trembling
In deadly black
With painful eyes
Delusion is back insideCry for more
To be sure

And find your own real truthLet your heart out, put your soul in it!
Time to fly away amd let your mind go freeNo denying what this life should give
From mistakes you learn to forgiveScream your heart out! Dig your soul in it
Time to fly away amd let your mind go freeNo denying what this life should give
Building dreams of your hope is the key
Feel the truth of your heart to relief
From your dreams you will learn how to live!
