You Said

Syleena Johnson

When I say, "I do", you say, "I don't"
When I say, "I will", you say, "I won't"
I wanna keep this love but you show me you don't What's wrong with you baby, tell me the truth, yeahI wanna be your man, but right now, I know I can't
It's not that I don't love you, please understand
The situations in my life, they tie up both my hands
I don't wanna lose you baby, I don't wanna confuse you, noYou said you would always be near
Why you wanna run away, my dear?
You said I would never be alone
Tell me the truth, what's going on?I know I said, I'd always be there
But I wouldn't walk away if I didn't care
Things are gonna work out one day
Please believe me girl, it's better this wayWhen I say, "I do" girl, don't take it personal
When I say, "I will", Lord knows I've tried, I wanna be your man
Don't take your love away but baby right now I can't
One day you'll be my baby and I still love youYou said you would always be near
Why you wanna run away, my dear?
You said I would never be alone
Tell me the truth, what's going on?I know I said, I'd always be there
But I wouldn't walk away if I didn't care
Things are gonna work out one day
Believe me baby, it's better this wayWhat about love baby?
What about responsibility?
What about the times we don't agree?
Baby, love is larger than you and me
