Some Guys

Tuxedomoon

How many guys like me
All through history
How many girls like youSome guys kiss and tell
Love you and leave you
Bring you up take you down
But I don't careLonely days in the sun
Friends don't call
I watch the light on the wallLonelier nights
I sleep with my sweat
But I don't careI see my heart remains the same, the same
Inside my heart remains the same
Mon coeur reste toujours le memeLondon to Paris
Amsterdam to Berlin
Walking the same streets
Thinking the same thoughtsWalk down Wardour to Saint-Germain
Is one big lonely city but I don't care
One big Eurocity but I don't careOh oh, you see, my heart remains the same, the same
Inside my heart remains the same
Mon coeur reste toujours le memeYa, I was looking for him and she came to me
I was looking for him but she came to me
I was cruising my decay
Where the trams connect
