Easy On The Eyes

Ohioan

I'm the most dangerous person in this room
The way you look I could do some damage to myself
It's your heart against mine and I fear I may capsize
I'm operating without a license but I'm willing to pay the price
And you're just so easy, you're so damn easy on the eyes
You're just so easy, you're so damn easy on the eyes
You turn your face the two sides don't synchronize
You're nothing like anyone I've ever seen before
If I'm staring at you, well then I apologize
You defy every rule I've learned but still I've never been half so turned on
And you're just so easy, you're so damn easy on the eyes
You're just easy, you're so damn easy on the eyes
Handsome's not a word that comes to mind
But I'd have to be blind to try and minimize
How easy you are on the eyes, easy on the eyes
In my vertigo you're easy on the eyes
From head to toe you're so easy on my eyes
I'm operating without a license but I'm willing to pay the price
And you're just so easy, you're so damn easy on the eyes
You're just so easy, you're so damn easy on the eyes
You're just so easy, ooh, so damn easy on the eyes
'Cause if my vertigo makes you so I don't believe so
I just know you're easy on the eyes, oh, you're so easy on my eyes
