Magic Hour

Fruit Bats

I'll wait till I see a cloud Shaped like the Garden State And little stars are cars at turnpike gates And the moon is DelawareOh, I'll wait, I'll wait for the magic hour Go and find myself the biggest tree Cut it down and count the rings, oh Time was once When there was rustling in the reeds Tiny tumbleweeds, pigeons on the porch And there was dumb love fallers Carpet crawlers spinning in the deckTime was once When there was rustling in the reeds Tiny tumbleweeds, pigeons on the porch And there was dumb love fallers Carpet crawlers spinning in the deckOh, oh, I'll wait till I see a cloud Shaped like the Garden State And little stars are cars at turnpike gates And the moon is DelawareOh, I'll wait for the magic hour, I will wait I made this song because I made you stay And I will always love you Oh, I will always love you Oh, I will always love you
