I'm Free

Jon Secada

Do you see what I see
A rainbow shining over us
In the middle of a hopeless storm, ohSometimes I'm blinded by my feelings
And I can't see beyond my troubled mind
Afraid of what I'll find, the story of our lives
But there's tomorrow'Cause I'm free, I'm free
And things are only as important as I want them to be
We'll have a breath of sunshine
When the rain goes away I pray, I pray, yeahDo you need a friend right now
On the road that you're going to
If you get lost just call me, I'll be there
Yes I'll be right there'Cause though I may not have the answers
At least I know what I'm looking for
Yes, I can do without sorrow
There's a day after tomorrow
So I'm leaving it behindI'm free, I'm free
Things are only as important as I want them to be
We'll have a breath of sunshine
When the rain goes away I pray, I prayI'm free, I'm free
Things are only as important as I want them to be
We'll have a breath of sunshine
When the rain goes away I pray, I pray, babyAnd if you want to share my dreams
Well all you have to do is say it, say it
Let me hear you loud and clear
'Cause I need you if you wanna be, if you wanna beDo you see what I see
A rainbow shining over us
In the middle of a hopeless storm
We'll be safe and warmI'm free, I'm free
Things are only as important as I want them to be
We'll have a breath of sunshine
When the rain goes away I pray, I prayI'm free, I'm free
Things are only as important as I want them to be
We'll have a breath of sunshine
When the rain goes away I pray, I pray
