

Touching Heaven

JOHNNYSWIM

All I see are angels and all these streets of gold
That lead to you
If touching love is touching God no wonder I'm in heaven
When I'm holding you
Simple as a songA melody repeating in this heart
I don't know when the chorus came
Where I heard it first or when it started
I won't be holding my breath for chariots mmm
I'm not just waiting for skies to part
You've been my glimpse of Kingdom right from the start
And you got me touching heavenOooo oooo
Got me touching heaven
Oooo oooo
So tell me what you're dreaming
Tell me what it is
A dream come true
I don't need a map to find the hidden treasure
There ain't no hiding you
I won't be holding my breath for chariots
I'm not just waiting for skies to part
You've been my glimpse of kingdom right from the start
And you got me touching heavenOooo oooo
Got me touching heaven
Oooo oooo
Got me touching heaven
And you're my hallelujah
Mmmm
You're my hallelujah
Yes you are
You're my hallelujah
Oh my hallelujah (yes you are)
Oh you're my hallelujah
Oh you're my hallelujah
Yeah yeahAnd you got me touching heaven
Ooooooooooooo
Got me touching heaven
Oooo oooo
You got me touching heaven
You're my hallelujah

Mmmm
You're my hallelujah (yes you are)
If touching Love is touching God, no wonder I'm in heaven
When I'm holding you. You're my hallelujah
You're my hallelujah
