Man Like You

Patrick Watson

I knew a boy that was swallowed by the sky
By the flashing lights
I knew a man that got lost in the big dull blue
And came out aliveI knew a boy, I knew a man Who looked a lot like youI knew a time you could stand still beside never rushing by
I knew a place you can go where your head could explode
Into peace of mindI knew a time, I knew a place
That felt a lot like you
I knew a boy, I knew a man
Who looked a lot like youJust like youI knew a friend that would hold on to the flames
Keep them from burning you
I knew a smile
I could see through all of the stars
That the world had thrownI knew a smile, I knew a friend
That looked a lot like you
I knew a boy, I knew a man
Who looked a lot like you
