Demon John

Jeff Buckley

Say farewell, g'night, sonny Jim In your defenseless, winning smile What do you hope to win?

And bliss face down, defendedWell, now stoned demon John

There ain't no town the boy cannot belong

Why did you come here

Is it to excavate all your sins, boil within? Slaughter like the daughter of the devil you send me
I have to deal, you called me here

Can't say that you were juiced the night

That you were introduced to demon JohnGonna take him with you when you go Dance down slow, oh, way downYou cannot escape the bar-side angel dissector You undo your life with too much cocoon, who's your protector?

Dark as the city where the white girls walk by

Down below your eyes, just like firefliesYou call me here, come on here, follow me dear Past cascades of rage and fear, you called me here

Couldn't say that you had been juiced

The time that you were introduced to demon JohnWell, you knew you had to want to go Dance down slow by the light of the sunMurder comes today or tonight

Better get yourself together and transcend it

A burst of light blaze stars into me

While the love breaks through here and nowSo murder by the light of the sun Please, don't get too close to me

You said you are for real, it's not pretend

All memories stolen, know this for yourselfHow'd you like to be the happiest man in the world? Behind the weathered field hands whose blistered paws harvest cut

For wedding clothes they'll never wear

Marching down a road that was never there

It takes place on a sunlit lace and the backbone brokenPlease bring us light, demon John You, demon John, take him with you when you go
