Winter (feat. Joe Bateman) [Radio Edit]

Charlie Atom & Michael Fall

Is it winter coz i dont know
Why I Miss Ya
And this feeling that i got no one to love
I wanna hold ya
But i told ya i couldn't be everything you expected out of me
Now i am broken
Down in need
Now i see things clearly
And i can't believe that i'm on my knees
Begging you to take me
I get that feeling that you think
Its not real
But M not lying
I get that feeling you're stalling
But you're all
(I got going) Ã— 2

All the time I'v been wrestling through the wind
Trying to find peace within
In the snow storm I lost my sight on truth
When it cleared i knew that I had lost you
So can you take me back again ?
Can you be to me more than a friend
I get the feeling you're stalling
But you're all
(I got going)Ã—2

{ [Come on dont leave me here in the cold rain
I know i screamed up
OH
But i'm here again

Dont give your heart to another man
Coz he cant love you more than i can .] } Ã—2

I get the feeling
That you think

Its not real but
M not lying
I get the feeling you're stalling
But your all
(I got going) Ã—2
