A Little Opera Goes A Long Way

Sky Sailing

I'll save you
An echo from my heart
And I'll paint you
A dream scape on your bedroom wallPretend you're not alone
Like you are center stage on Broadway
'Cause when you're on your own
A little opera goes a long wayI'll meet you
Where the page proclaims the end
And I'll make do
With the fractions my reactions bendPretend you're not alone
Like you are center stage on Broadway
'Cause when you're on your own
A little opera goes a long wayI'll capsize this high rise
And well the cable car
And I'll drive down to some southwestern town
And end up where you arePretend you're not alone
Like you are center stage on Broadway
'Cause when you're on your own
A little opera goes a long wayI'll reset your silhouette
And be your parasol
So hold on to your fluorescent view
And if you slip and fall, I will catch you
