Love Hater

Andre 3000

Everybody needs a glass of water today
To chase the hate away
You know you've got company coming over
So you scrub extra hard
And everybody needs somebody to love
Before it's too late, it's too late
Don't nobody wanna grow old and alone
Everybody needs someone to rub their shoulders
And scratch their dandruff
And everybody needs to quit actin' hard and shit
Before you get your ass whooped
(I'll slap the fuck out ya)
And everybody needs somebody to love
Before it's too late, it's too late
Love hater, love hater, hater of love
Love hater, love hater, hater of love
Love hater, love hater, hater of love
Love hater
Everybody needs somebody to love
Everybody needs somebody to love
Everybody needs somebody to love
