[Verse: Romeo]Now the cars sit low in the rain it dont matter

If I have to put it up then you have to us a ladder

Now Im sittin in the sky yea kinda like a building be

Gotta keep them honeys paint job like a bumblebee

Put it on the side make the Coop go faster

Cops just wave Im the son of a Master

I sit back, just lay back, the May-back

Bed full of girls and they wonder why Im laid back

Wheels match the grillz sneakers match the tees

Gutta music chain hangin now its all up to me

Cant lose gotta win, on the top where I be

Pictures of a little kid yea I gotta have a P

Got a team full of soldiers when I feel I have to creep

(Whoodihoop) thats the Phantom run off the high beam

Im so Hollyhood best on the West

Just hit 81 like a 8 on my chest

[Hook x2: Romeo (Lil' D)][Verse: Lil' D]I sit low on 24s but my dos up higher

Inside cherry velour, candy red outside

I ride ginger combinations like lockers

My diamonds stay in the ring like a couple of boxers

Try to rob dog you gon need a couple of doctors

You's an actor not a gangster get a couple of Oscars

Im real to the bone keep two cell phones

Soldier girl in my grill now she wanna take the boy home

Yep, she can hop up in my E.S.V.

Sits reclinin, watch so HDTV

I aint lyin sometimes I think my jewellery gay brother

Cause when it shine it make a bunch of rainbow colors

Ooh, dog who is you

And how u call yourself shinin when my rims got mo diamonds then u

And how you rich when I can even buy you too
Im sittin low wit a 6.4 lookin like I got it
[Hook x2: Romeo (Li' D)]
