

Taint the Sky

Seventh Wonder

A northern corner,
the stage is set and each must play his part Accusing children: "-I have seen her fly!"
the life-depriving lies I'm sorry you must believe me!
-but we have seen you heal in evil ways.
Deceiver! Witches will burn
-even if she dies for a crime unknown
Taint the sky, ashes falling
And even if your heart is saying "No!"
-Your mind is so twisted. Can you really let her go?
Soon the heavens will burn! A stronger magic;
to allow this jest, reason is subdued
Accused and lying -oh sure she will cry!
Confession tears they are! I'm sorry, my life is over
-and we will make the demons go away.
Forever! Witches will burn
-even if she dies for a crime unknown
Taint the sky, ashes falling
And even if your heart is saying "No!"
-Your mind is so twisted. Can you really let her go?
Soon the heavens will burn! A kingdom is burning,
and will I ever know just why?
I see them burning oh I see
It burns in me
? they? re burning us all! Witches will burn
-even if she dies for a crime unknown
Taint the sky, ashes falling
And even if your heart is saying "No!"
-Your mind is so twisted. Can you really let her go?
Soon the heavens will burn! victoragnus
