

No More Goodbyes

Michael Cassidy

I said goodbye
Thought that I'd be free
But that goodbye
Just led to misery
This king of fools
Is knocking on your door
Begging for the glory
Of serving you once more

Like a sparrow
Captured in a cage
Imprisoned by my ways
Ways of thinking
That have kept me in the dark
I seek your mercy Lord
To change this wretched heart

No more goodbyes
Thought that I'd be free
But that goodbye
Just led to misery
This king of fools
Is knocking on your door
Begging for the glory
Of serving you once more

I was confused
To ever make this world my home
It robs me of my youth
And all I own
I have nothing when the final curtain calls
To think with You
There was a time I had it all.

No more goodbyes
Thought that I'd be free

But that goodbye
Just led to misery
This king of fools
Is knocking on your door
Begging for the glory
Of serving you once more

No more goodbyes
Thought that I'd be free
But that goodbye
Just led to misery
This king of fools
Is knocking on your door
Begging for the glory

Begging for the glory
Of serving you once more.....
