

Medication

The Briefs

im the one that goes to school on sunday im the one that burnt it down im the one that goes away for the holidays spend the weekends strapped down im the one that sits next to you while dressed and so polite im the one that the doctors always liked i couldnt be any different your friends are doing fine these are the things i need the medications making me right im ok these are the things i need the medications making me right im ok these are the things i need the medications making me right im popular to diagnotion objects not allowed im popular for side effects and a face in every crowd who to say ho youre the one so smooth without a bump whose to say it wont be you who jumps youll jump i couldnt be any different in fact im doing fine these are the things i need the medications making me right im ok these are the things i need the medications making me right im ok these are the things i need the medications making me right these are the things i need the medications making me right im ok these are the things i need the medications making me right im ok these are the things i need the medications making me oh yeah right im ok oh yeah right my names mike

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>