Valley Of Dreams

Somnesia

Night eternal
In the valley of dreams
It is said not to exist but I have seen
If you come with me we could stay forever
Into the endless that you cannot leaveI prowl the night
A tiger tiger burning bright now
There's something in the air
Forever searching but I find it nowhereTil the burning in my heart
Turns to ash and I'm laid to rest
Til the tears of blood don't drop
Like rain falling from the sky
This is what I amAlone in this world because we're not like them
We see the things that they cannot see
We've tasted things of which they'll never know, oh no
No matter day or night
Forever lost in dreamsI prowl the night
A tiger tiger burning bright now
There's something in the air
Forever searching but I find it nowhereTil the burning in my heart
Turns to ash and I'm laid to rest
Til the tears of blood don't drop
Like rain falling from the sky
This is what I amSo let's goThis is what I am
