

In The Presence Of Enemies, Pt. 2

Dream Theater

Welcome tired pilgrim into the circle
We have been waiting
Everyone's gathered for your arrival
All the believers
Angels fall, all for you, heretic
Demon heart bleed for us
I've been waiting for you, weary preacher man
You have been expected, now we can begin
Let this hollow day
Of Judgment break
I have known you father and your sacred quest
Blessed soldier fighting
You shall never rest
I have known you, but do you know me?
Angels fall, all for you, heretic
Demon heart bleed for us
My soul is yours dark master
I will fight for you
Dark master within, I will fight for you
Dark master of sin, now my soul is yours
Dark master, my guide, I will die for you
Dark master inside
I cannot see his face, but I could feel despite
A presence from the dead
Abandoned by the light
His shadow will consume you from within
This power that I sense been raging behind those eyes
This justice straddling ghost
A spirit deep inside
The body and the soul both frets, for they are one
Angels fall, all for you, heretic
Demon heart bleed for us
My soul is yours dark master
I will fight for you
Dark master within, I will fight for you
Dark master of sin, now my soul is yours
Dark master, my guide, I will die for you
Dark master inside
Dark master, I'm in, I belong to you

Dark master within
Heil, heil, heil, heil
Heil, heil, heil, heil
Heil, heil, heil, heil
Don't bother trying to find him
He will be coming to you
Fight, fight and destroy
Until you can't take anymore
Slave, spilling the blood of the rebels
They are the children of hell
Flesh of the undead
Stopping at nothing to kill
Sick, caught in a moment of weakness
Here be the greatest of all
Soul, half of my soul
Now it's too late for you
I judge as my eye see
I judge and die unjust
For I speak of the beast that lives in all of us
Unwelcome ones, your time has come
Lord, you are my guide and my shepherd
Nothing more shall I want
Walk, through the abyss
See the shadow of death
Fear, there is no evil to fear now
For I know you are with me
My cup over flows
By enemies' blood
I came to the house of the lord
For every men
Death, you follow me
All the days of my life
I judge as my eye see
I judge and die unjust
For I speak of the beast that lives in all of us
Unwelcome one, your time has come
Servants of the fallen
Fight to pave the way
For their saviors calling
On this wicked day
Through a fair of madness
With a vicious blade one man rises up
Standing in their way
It's time for your reckoning
My soul grows weaker

He knows and he waits, he watches over me
Standing at the inferno gates
In the hour of darkness
The moment I feared has passed
The moment I lost my faith
Promising salvation, my soul is my own now
I do not fight for you, dark master
