

Ton O' Luv

Devo

When love takes a back seat to life
And when a man runs away from his wife
That's when you know, he's in the world
When a guy tries to round up his mate
But she's gone and it's gettin' too late
That's when you know, he lost his girl
So it happens all the time
Don't get low, just stand in line
Take your turn, now make your move
And crush that doubt with a ton o' luv
When woman takes a back seat to man
She has to tell him where to go if she can
And she decides to wear his ring
So it happens all the time
Don't get low, just stand in line
Take your turn, now make your move
And crush that doubt with a ton o' luv
Find a girl with the face of a clock
Hands move forward till you can't stop
She comes from above with a ton o' luv
With a ton o' luv, with a ton o' luv
With a ton o' luv, with a ton o' luv
With a ton o' luv, with a ton o' luv
With a ton o' luv, with a ton o' luv
With a ton o' luv, with a ton o' luv
With a ton o' luv
