

When I Look at the World

Lucinda Williams

I've been out of luck, I've been talked about,
I've been locked up, I've been shut out,
I've had some bad dreams, I been feeling a little regret,
I've made a mess of things and I've been a total wreck,
I've been disrespected and and taken for a ride,
I've been rejected and had my patience tried.

But then I look at the world

In all it's glory

I look at the world

And it's a different story each time

I look at the world

I've been used and I've been blue,
I've been abused, have been lied to,
I've been left behind, I've been misunderstood,
And be out of the money and not feeling good,
I've been lost and I've been turned away
I've paid the cost and it's been hell to pay.

But then I look at the world

In all it's glory

I look at the world

And it's a different story each time

I look at the world

I've been unforgiven, I've been let down
I've had the truth hurt, I've been kicked around,
I've been wasted, I've been on the brink
I've had my faith tested and my spirit sink
I've been unwelcome, I've been unloved,
I've been cheated on and made a fool of.

But then I look at the world

In all it's glory

I look at the world

And it's a different story each time

I look at the world

In all it's glory

I look at the world

And it's a different story each time

Each time I look at the world...
