English Translation: You're in danger

You're in danger

You're in danger

You're in danger You treat me like this everyday

You only care about yourself like you are just you

I am just I, that's your kind of formula. Does your phone work right? Really?

Am I really your boy friend? I'm sick of this! Why are you holding back your expression of love like you put off your homework?

Is it like a business relationship for you? Or Do you hate me or what?

Dung Dung Diggy Dung Dung

Please be more affectionate! I pray for it again today. We are like parallel lines. We are so different though we both are looking at the same place.

You are the only one that I got inside but I feel like that I'm outside of you.

Whenever I turn sulky you ask me "Are you mad at me?"

Have you ever really done something to me?

You are a sweetie! But I'm just a poor boy

I wish the miracle would happen that you love more than I do. You don't have me inside but I'm full of you. It drives me crazy.

But why are you doing this to me?

Why are you making a fool of me? Now I'm warning you!

Don't get me twisted! Are you fucking kidding me? What am I to you?

Am I easy to you? Are you plying with me?

You are in danger now. Why are you testing me? Why are you testing me?

Don't get me twisted. Are you fucking kidding me? What am I to you?

Am I easy to you? Are you playing with me?

You are in danger now. Why are you testing me? Why are you testing me?

Don't get me twisted. (You hurt me so! You hurt me so! You hurt me so!)

Don't get me twisted

(You are too bad to me! You are too bad to me! You are too bad to me!)

Don't get me twisted Contact. Absence. Unlock. Wanted.

I'm searching for your real intension.

You always send me just 1 or 2 line of text messages and that's it.

Was this really love I've wanted and dreamed? Where is the love story filled with ups and downs?

Get soap opera heroes and heroines out of my way!

I am tearing my hair out like hundreds of times.

You are so calm and feel no guilty, and you kick my ass What am I? What am I? What am I to you?

I always heard your news not from yourself but from your friends.

Want you. Want you. Uh~ I want you

You are trickster. You are a criminal who shook my heart..

I had already wasted my heart even before it started to burn.

My one-way proposes are waste of time.

If I was not a lover but just a friend to you, maybe you would feel more comfortable. I'm such a love loser. You don't have me inside but I'm full of you. It drives me crazy.

But why are you doing this to me? Why are you making a fool of me? Now I'm warning you!

Don't get me twisted! Are you fucking kidding me? What am I to you?

Am I easy to you? Are you plying with me?

You are in danger now. Why are you testing me? Why are you testing me?

Don't get me twisted. Are you fucking kidding me? What am I to you?

Am I easy to you? Are you playing with me?

You are in danger now. Why are you testing me? Why are you testing me?

Don't get me twisted. (You hurt me so! You hurt me so! You hurt me so!)

Don't get me twisted

(You are too bad to me! You are too bad to me! You are too bad to me!)

Don't get me twisted
