The Word

Magnum

Wait, here's a word or two
To you who are passing through
Time is on your side
Though some may be deniedJust waiting, standing around
The time will come for everyone
Still waiting soon to be found
The light inside of everyoneNobody said that it was easy
Making your way all by yourself
But you take what you've got
Though it don't seem a lot
And you give it the best that you canLife is a precious thing
So don't burn it up
Start living it day by day
Life is a precious thing
So don't burn it up
Start living it day by dayThough we must carry on
In time we will think upon
All those peaceful nights
When everything went rightJust waiting, standing around
The time will come for everyone
Still waiting soon to be found
The light inside of everyoneNobody said that it was easy
Making your way all by yourself
But you take what you've got
Though it don't seem a lot
And you give it the best that you canLife is a precious thing
So don't burn it up
Start living it day by day
Life is a precious thing
So don't burn it up
Start living it day by dayLife is a precious thing
So don't burn it up
Start living it day by day
Life is a precious thing
So don't burn it up
Start living it day by dayLife is a precious thing
So don't burn it up
Start living it day by day
Life is a precious thing

So don't burn it up
Start living it day by day
