Love and Misery

The Modern Electric

If what they say is true then I'm committing last Sitting on the other side but I'm staring at the same grass
They said it's better to have loved and lost Then to have never loved at all
But all I really needed was time
Someone that could show me a sign
All I ever wanted, all I ever needed was time
Sing with me, come tell your story
Love and misery and everything in between
I don't know where to go but when I get there
I promised love that she'd be the first to see Now, I don't mind listening to your fables and stories you always said that things wouldn't be the way that they should be but all I wanted was time

someone that could show me a sign
All I ever wanted, all I ever needed was time
Sing with me, come tell your story
Sing with me, come tell your story
Love and misery and everything in between
I don't know where to go but when I get there
I promised love that she'd be the first to see
But do you want to see?
Does anybody ever really want to see?
Do you want to see?
Don't know where to go but when I get there I promised love she'd be the first to see
