Johnny "the Good"

Sexy Sadie

There goes Johny the good heading to nowere
He was put in between two ways and sat to wait
Johnny said "it's all right", said "someday"
He likes staring at the sun
I said "Johnny, sun won't come down to your hands"
He just wrote his sad smile drown in his face
Johnny said "it's all right", said "someday"
Kept on staring at the sun
There goes Johny the good heading to nowere
He was put in between two ways and sat to wait
Johnny said "it's all right", said "someday"
He likes staring at the sun
