The Sound Of

Jann Arden

No, I will not lay down I will not live my life like a ghost in this town I am not lonely swear to God I'm just alone I'm back on my feet I can just close my eyes and forget everything

My house is empty every memory blown awayOh the sound of the wind through my bones makes me laugh At all the bodies I kissed and never knew

> Oh, the song of a lover's sympathy falling down to the floor Just barely out of reach from meNo, I will not go back Every word thats been hiding inside of my head is running blindly Look behind me, nothing's left

> > I can sit in a room

I can hear myself breathing and be quite amused Life is simple like the wrinkles on my skinOh, the sound of the wind through my heart makes me glad For all the ones that never knew my name Oh the sound of a lover's sympathy, I had to go could not stay here They were always out of reach from me
