Song About Killing

Caliban

I'm here to kill, I'm here to die
I feel this pain, I have this hate
You teach me love, you teach me fear
But now you getting it all back
(And my reasons are just trivial)Try to run away
But believe me, to die is your fateThis song is about killing
A love letter just for you
Let's make it right
Let's make it clear
No one wants you hereAll I want is to kill, I want you dead
The price is too high, my life's too short
(I'm sick of hunting you)
You are my shadow, you are my demon
You have to burn for my joyI'll watch you burn
So you better run
Before I'll watch you burnTry to run away
But believe me, to die is your fateThis song is about killing
A love letter just for you
Let's make it right
Let's make it clear
No one wants you here
