

Love Calling Earth

Robbie Williams

Love is calling earth
Do you know how much it hurts?
I didn't die overnight
In the wind I had candlelight
I'm controlled by my fear
All the voices in my head
That I can hear Please don't hurt me How do I learn
To give and love and be loved in return
If this is heaven I'm falling
I'd rather run and jump away
Than to see it burn
I feel I could die
Before I sleep I kiss your cheek
And say goodbye I'm so sorry
Please don't hurt me This is love calling earth
Do you know how much it hurts?
I didn't die overnight
In the wind I had candlelight I'm controlled by my fear
And all the voices in my head
That I can hear I'm so sorry
Please don't hurt me If you could see me through my mother's eye
Only then would you begin to realise
All the places I have ever been Have scared me half to death or somewhere in-between I'm so sorry
Please
