

Him Her Them

Tank

I say you're even, to go ahead
You say you never needed, and don't care
Who you think you're fooling
Girl I'm a good nigga
This suicide you're pulling
You need a new trigger
How you gonna floss
How you gonna be your fleek
You gotta find a real boss
If you gonna replace me, yeah
Gonna be a loss, just wait and see
Go on run them streets
And get your ass back here
Right the way you supposed to be 'Cause you know where you belong, oh yeah
You gonna need me and I'll be gone
Sooner how I told you Who's gonna love you like me?
Not him, not her, not them
Who's gonna love you like me?
Not here, not now, not never
Who's gonna love you like me?
I was willing to give my life for you
Where I stand, go back like you don't know
Who's gonna love you like me?
Nowhere, no how
I'll be there when you'll see
Who's gonna know? Look how I made you say
Now you wanna break it and go away
Tryina do right this can't be life
Got me out I really feel in place
They try to tell me about,
They try to tell me about
Now you get down
I went all in with no doubts
I'm still in love with you now
But you're not around
How you're gonna need, oh
When I provided that bread, oh
How you gonna sleep, oh
When I provided that bed, oh

How you gonna jump out the window, oh
With no place to land, oh
How you gonna do a song out you
Without your number one fan 'Cause you know where you belong, oh yeah
You gonna need me and I'll be gone
Sooner how I told you Who's gonna love you like me?
Not him, not her, not them
Who's gonna love you like me?
Not here, not now, not never
Who's gonna love you like me?
I was willing to give my life for you
Where I stand, go back like you don't know
Who's gonna love you like me?
Nowhere, no how
I'll be there when you'll see
Who's gonna know? What you looking for?
Who you looking for?
Are you gonna do this, come on
Right where you belong Who's gonna love you like me?
Not him, not her, not them
Who's gonna love you like me?
Not here, not now, not never
Who's gonna love you like me?
I was willing to give my life for you
Where I stand, go back like you don't know
Who's gonna love you like me?
Nowhere, no how
I'll be there when you'll see
Who's gonna know?
