

Summertime

Big Brovaz

Oh yeah, you know what?
I'm envisioning, pretty women, rim's spinning
All my homies dressed in expensive linen
It ain't a dream, that's the life we're livin'
Movin' up to a new position
People used to look and be like
I ain't never gonna be shit that's until I gotta
6 Hundred, V dozen full, Y equipped whip
And I never stop stacking chips
Fool got bling in the chain, got bling on the wrist
And this type of life is priceless
'Cause ain't nothing on earth like this
What you know
When it's hot, it gets crazy, we pop Krystal on a daily
Just me and my ladies, we know how to make
You move your feet to the beat
Can you feel the heat, tell me sisters
Do you feel me? Brothers roll with me
Summertime is the time you've been waiting for, oh yeah
There's always a party somewhere 'round the way, oh yeah
Summertime is the time you've been waiting for, oh yeah
There's always a party somewhere 'round the way, oh yeah
Boys and girls, go find yo friends
Ladies and gentlemen, call your partners
Let them feel this time of year again, don't be scared to shout
Come on and move yo body, let's all get down
Tap yo feet to the beat, come on and party with me
It's a pretty hot day and all I wanna do
Is play with the homies from around the way okay
Hater's better stay in the crib if they wanna come
Spray Mac 10's and tech 9's all the time
See we trying to have fun and it doesn't matter

Where you're from so if you strap, please don't come out
With your guns see us having a party, sipping on Bacardi
Me and my family don't hate us
Look we are making papers, we simply the greatest, Big Brovaz
You know you love us, you can't deny us so come and join us
Get off your chair and throw your bows in the air

We repping south side bric city better beware alright
Summertime is the time you've been waiting for, oh yeah
There's always a party somewhere 'round the way, oh yeah
Summertime is the time you've been waiting for, oh yeah
There's always a party somewhere 'round the way, oh yeah
Sexy guys in their convertibles
Oh and how they're checking you
'Cause they wanna know who you are when in the sun
It's unbelievable, all eyes they be watching you
'Cause they want you're name and number
Ain't nutten but riding going on, ball out to my song
I done got me a hot whip, now I got them hot chick
Stripping down to their thongs, don't hate me
'Cause I'm on top baby, that's just where I belong
So long, Big Bro's bin waiting for their time to perform
You get me and now it's popping, it's gonna get real messy
Don't think were crazy fools 'cause we role around town
Rocking crazy jewels
We already dun paid our do's now Big Bro's the family
That's making the moves only got one motto 'Never to lose'
Get your hands in the air, now follow the rules
Summertime is the time you've been waiting for, oh yeah
There's always a party somewhere 'round the way
Summertime is the time you've been waiting for' oh yeah
There's always a party somewhere 'round the way
