Ain't nothing gonna cross that line
Ain't nothing gonna change your mind
Ain't nothing gonna send us signs
Maybe no one will, I have to try
Nobody's gonna hold your hand
Nobody's gonna understand
Nobody's gonna count that sand
Nothing ever goes quite as plannedNobody's gonna fix what's burned
Everybody tries to steal what's earned
Nobody's gonna wait their turn
No they never will, they never willAin't nothing gonna heal your wound
Ain't nothing gonna change your tune
Ain't nothing gonna fix this soon
Lay it all on meWhen there's no one you can find
I'm right here just give me a try
All I can say is I apologize
We share more than this blood and eyes
I can never be those words
Or the voices that we both heard
Just remember
You gotta remember the world takesWhen it all goes down
Remember that the world takesEverybody's gotta bear that weight
Everybody's gotta fill their plate
Everybody's gotta clean that slate
Throw it all on meWhen there's no one you can find
I'm right here just give me a try
All I can say is I apologize
We share more than this blood and eyes
I can never be those words
Or the voices that we both heard
Just remember
You gotta remember the world takesWhen it all goes down
When it all goes
