

And It's Supposed To Be Love

Ayo

Body slam you to the ground
Messaging a chill
Curses make the head go 'round
Brings a certain thrill Send you to another world
Mesmerize your brain
It's the jewel of a pearl
Makes you go insane And it's supposed to be love
Yes, it's supposed to be love
Well, it's supposed to be love
Say 'cause it's all 'cause of love It's a sad and lonely song
Sour grapes and tears
Something dark is going on
Going on for years Body slam your partner down
Up against the wall
It's a sad and scary scene
With no grace at all And it's supposed to be love
Yes, it's supposed to be love
Well, it's supposed to be love
Say 'cause it's all 'cause of love Wonder how it came to be
Things with me and you
How we lost the way to love
How we got so blue Body slam your lover down
Fill him with regret
Who knows what the end will be
It ain't over yet And it's supposed to be love
Yes, it's supposed to be love
Well, it's supposed to be love
Say 'cause it's all 'cause of love Say 'cause it's all 'cause of love
Say 'cause it's all 'cause of love
Say 'cause it's all 'cause of love
