

California

Blood Red Boots

I went down to the ocean. For the answer.

I went down to the ocean. Tasted water. And cried.

You are so far from me. 2000 miles but who's counting.

I will wait. I will wait. I will wait. I'm gonna sing for the sun. I will sing till you stand next to me.

I'm gonna sing for the sky. I will sing till you stand next to me.

Are you listening?
