Over and Done

The City Drive

You're thinking of ways to get back to me
It's all that you have and it's only a dream
That look in my eye has long ago died
I'm handing it over to some other guyApologize, all that you want to
There's too many lies that you're buried underI tried don't waste my time
You're not the one, it's over and doneA couple of years are gone overnight
I noticed a difference, it didn't seem right
The way that you laughed, the smell of your skin
And then I showed up and I saw you with himNow don't even cry, I know you want to
You wanna set right, what has been sunderedI tried don't waste my time
You're not the one, it's over and done
You've become nothing and no oneYou're thinking of ways to get back to me
It's all that you have and it's only
A miles away and starting today
I'll never beBack in the middle of, back in the middle Back in the middle of how it was Back in the middle of, back in the middle
Back in the middle it's over and doneDon't waste my time
You're not the one, it's over and done
You've become nothing and no one
