

How Did It Come to This

Take That

I didn't see it coming
It took me by surprise
Just when I wasn't looking
I noticed all the lies And how did it come to this?
You stabbed me in the back
How did it come to this?
You said you were my friend You had your own agenda
But someone starves at home
I'm sorry I cannot help, but
The one that starves is the one I love And how did it come to this?
You stabbed me in the back
How did it come to this?
Alone with nothing left
How did it come to this?
You said you were my friend
How did it come to this?
After everything I did And how did it come to this?
You stabbed me in the back
How did it come to this?
How did it come to this?
You said you were my friend
How did it come to this?
After everything I did For you
You said you were my friend
How did it come to this?
