Bleeds No More

Silverstein

My heart bleeds no more
Now, its been turned to stone
Your stomach feels sick for someone else
And Ive broken both my legs, falling for youDrag me on the ground
Powerless, I stand, tarnished blade
Cutting through, pushed into my vein
Blood still stains my hands
Sharpening my sense of pain outsideMy heart bleeds no more
Now, its been turned to stone
Your stomach feels sick for someone else
And Ive broken both my legs, falling for youMy heart bleeds no more
Killing everything off inside
Make sense of everything you tried to hide
Hide from meMy heart bleeds no more
Now, its been turned to stone
My stomach feels sore from cutting up
And I ruined all my sanctity for you
Smash me on the groundI wanted to convince myself
Theres nothing else to do
I wanted to, provide you with
Proof of what you put me throughI wanted to pretend
That it was you
You're the worst thing
That ever happened to meDie, killing everything off inside
Make sense of everything you tried to hide
Hide from meMy heart bleeds no more
Now, its been turned to stone
Your stomach feels sick for someone else
And Ive broken both my legs, falling for you
Smash me on the ground
