

Blessing Wind

Bill Miller

There's a dangerous journey
You'll have to take
Be careful what you carry
Be careful what you takeBlow on blessing wind
Blow on blessing wind
Blow on blessing wind
Blow on blessing windThere's a path through the wilderness
You'll have to find
Those earthly possessions
You must leave behindBlow on blessing wind
Blow on blessing wind
Blow on blessing wind
Blow on blessing windThe rich man owns rivers of gold
Don't know what it's worth
The meek and the purest of heart
Will inherit the earthBlow on blessing wind
Blow on blessing wind, yeahBlow on blessing wind
Blow on blessing windHere's a shield you must carry
A horse you must ride
Show no fear in battle
For I am by your sideBlow on blessing wind
Blow on blessing wind
Blow on blessing wind
Blow on blessing wind, yeahBlow on
Blow on blessing wind
Blow on
Blow on blessing wind, oh yeahOh oh oh oh
Blow on Blow on Blow on
