

Reaction

The Unlikely Candidates

Reaction...I need a, I need a reactionIn a backstreet, in the hardest part of town

I'm fucked up, cause you're no longer around

I listen for a, heartbeat

And my mind breaks, cause I know I let you down

And I'm scared, that what's lost cannot be found

I listen for your, heartbeatYou're rollin'

The police are patrollin'

Patron in ice are flowin', the truth over meOh, it's the final season

(oh it's the final season)

And if you're not leavin

Then i need a

(Well I need a)

I need a reaction!

Oh give you a reason

(give me a reason)

To keep on believin'

But I need a

(Well I need a)

I need a reaction!I need a, I need a reactionAnd we move fast cause we knew if we slowed down

Pieces of our love would hit the ground

You're feelin' for a, heartbeat

And the room spins in a dirty dancin' hall

And you won't be there again to watch me fall

You look at me in the eyes, like it's the last time

Then you turn away when I need you now.I'm rollin'

The police are patrollin'

Patron in ice are flowin', the truth over me

Oh, it's the final season

(oh it's the final season)

And if you're not leavin

Then i need a

(Well I need a)

I need a reaction!Oh give you a reason

(give me a reason)

To keep on believin'

But I need a

(Well I need a)

I need a reaction!I need a, I need a reactionYour roses are red but my veins are blue

You see the love in my eyes

What'chu gonna do?
Your roses are dead and my veins are too
You see the life in my eyes
What'chu gonna do?
You're starin' at me but you don't make a move
We ain't got a lot of time
So what'chu gonna do?
I can change, I can change, I can change,
I can change... for... you...!Oh, it's the final season
(oh it's the final season)
And if you're not leavin
Then i need a
(Well I need a)
I need a reaction!Oh give you a reason
(give me a reason)
To keep on believin'
But I need a
(Well I need a)
I need a reaction!I need a, I need a reactionI need a, I need a reaction
