Elysium

transform every common moment in gem that's worth living for intensify impressions dive in a dual worldclaim only highest standards discover shapes save quiet prayer sing softly lullabyshe's the air I breathe the perfect drugmidsummer icy dusk still noises overwhelm lifeless, lovelorn and numbhaunt spectres from cold past how did it come to this would you tell me that it's gonewill you watch all over me in those creeping hours' fall like supernova flashexploding daily star an inscrutable force she-wolf awakescomforter & best friend always there - no anger drawn just some things that I yearn for colour of sundown has changed since that day - everything's newshe's the air I breathe coaxial reference systemfor I have nothing to fear addicted to precious sweetheartwhat we give is what we get it means together as one well, time is on our side we're hiding the angels nowangels of warmth in the light we are the lucky ones nothing remains the same sleepwalkers' companionpromises made to keep no words we need to tell crystal decades of trust a story never ends
