Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

They call me Junior, I live here on the street
I earn two hundred dollars a week
I'd like to say, "Hey, thanks a lot"I know I'm missin' something
But I don't know what it is
That I don't gotI sit here watchin' the people down below
I try to imagine the places they may go
I don't know, I stay home a lotI know I'm missin' something
But I don't know what it is
That I don't gotI see the world through the TV guide
What a safe place for me to run
What a small little man I amI'm afraid of everything
From golden rules to aeroplanes
What a small little man I amThey call me Junior, I'm caught up in this hell
Sometimes I feel better but I never do feel well
Jesus must have one hell of a plan for meI know I'm missin' something
But I don't know what it is
It could beAnd if I have anything to say about judgment day
There'll be a crown in heaven for those who live this way
Anyway, you know exactly who you areI see the world through the TV guide
What a safe place for me to run
What a small little man I amI'm afraid of everything
From the golden rule to aeroplanes
What a small little man I amThey call me Junior, I live here on the street
I earn two hundred dollars a week
I'd like to say, "Hey man, thanks a lot"My name is Junior
My name is Junior
They call me Junior
They call me JuniorThey call me Junior
My name is Junior
They call me Junior
They call me Junior
