

Telemiscommunications (Copy Paste Soul Remix)

Imogen Heap

Hey babe, how's your day been?
No, you first.
Oh, what, the day's quite bad?
Yeah, sorry Where are you, I can hardly hear you
A taxi distracted, anyway you, you were saying
Wait, uh, love, they're waving me over
Can I call you back, yeah everything's fine
Why, am I, I don't know why
I probably just need sleep, it's been a busy week
Sorry, I've got to go
Sorry, OK, bye This is just so unlike us
Come back to horizontal isms
If we could win just one small touch
Contact versus tele-miscommunications Plan foiled, the sirens pass by
Kids screaming, the longest predicaments
Reach ticket, finally got through
Running for a flight, shoes off
You're calling voicemail In joke, group laughter
Closing scenes, in a meeting
Angel, angel why didn't you tell me One second, someone needs directions
Can't you see I'm on the phone? This is just so unlike us
Come back to horizontal isms
If we could win just one small touch
Contact versus tele-miscommunications So unlike us (unlike us)
Come back to horizontal isms
If we could win just one small touch
Contact versus tele-miscommunications (Get better)
Did I tell you, I loved you today?
(Get better)
Did I tell you, I loved you today?
(Get better)
Did I tell you, I loved you today? (did I)
(Whoa) (Get better)
Did I tell you, I loved you today?
(Get better)
Did I tell you, I loved you today?
(Get better)
Did I tell you, I loved you today? (did I)

(Whoa)
