

Beautiful

Since October

Oh, how beautiful you are
So perfect in my eyes
So terrible and wrong
You look beautiful tonight

You're completely perfect
But perfectly incomplete
You're lacking only me
But you acted like you didn't want to know me

I have never seen your face
This glimpse of fantasy
I'm fallen on my knees
Listen please, listen to me

Oh, how beautiful you are
So perfect in my eyes
So terrible and wrong
You look beautiful tonight

For you to love me
For you just to know my name
Someday, sometime
Just for you to say that you'll be mine

I have never seen your face
This glimpse of fantasy
I've fallen on my knees
Listen please, listen to me

Oh, how beautiful you are
So perfect in my eyes
So terrible and wrong
You look beautiful tonight

I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting
I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting
I'm still waiting, I'm still waiting

Oh, how beautiful you are

So perfect in my eyes
So terrible and wrong
You look beautiful tonight

Bleed this through me
You look beautiful tonight
Bleed this through me
