

Why

Frankie Valli

Why
Why is the meadow greener in July Why is the sky so blue around you and can you tell me Why everything about you gets me high Never a thought of you can pass me by I feel like singing when you're in sight
But there's no music when you're gone
Oh oh oh WHY
Does the morning have to mean goodbye
What if we're still in love tomorrow Then would you, can't you try filling every hour of my life What if my love, wild birds would rather fly
Can you tell me Why
