No One

George Duke

There is no one in my life but you
Baby no one else, will do
Through the sun and rain, through the joy and the pain
I know that our love will remainThere is no one in my life but you
Baby no one else, will do
Through the sun and rain, through the joy and the pain
I know that our love will remainThere is no one in my life but you
Baby no one else, will do
Through the sun and rain, through the joy and the pain
I know that our love will remainThrough the sun and rain, through the joy and the pain
I know that our love will remain
